The Dark Feminine Within.
2 days with Joy Norton and Sarah Gibson

Saturday 28 & Sunday 29 January, 2012

(Auckland Anniversary weekend)

8.30am register 9.00am start-4.30pm

VENUE: Lees Institute- Lecture Room,
20 St Mary's Rd, Ponsonby, AUCKLAND

Refreshments provided for morning & afternoon breaks

Using sandplay images, fairy stories and myths, Joy Norton and Sarah Gibson explore the archetype of the Dark Mother from a Jungian perspective. Is our encounter with the Medusa, witch, crone or devouring mother spider dangerous or necessary?

Joy Norton is a Jungian Analyst and Counselling psychologist in private practice in Melbourne. She is currently the Co Director of Training with The Australian and New Zealand Society of Jungian Analysts. Joy Norton has a passionate interest in the ways image, story and psyche commune in sandplay to facilitate the unfolding and development of imagination and psychological healing.

Sarah Gibson is a Jungian Analyst and experienced sandplay therapist in private practice in Sydney. She completed her analytic training with ANZSJA. She is also an artist and filmmaker. Her interactive online project Re-enchantment examines the hidden meaning of fairy tales for adults.

A full programme will be sent by email on receipt of your registration of interest. Please forward to any colleagues it may also interest.
